INTRODUCTION

11. VenturePharma is a limited liability company, utilized exclusively as an investment vehicle for individuals and entities that invested in Progenex.

12. Shared Success is an incubator created specifically for emerging businesses; it connects entrepreneurs and small businesses with the money they need to grow their businesses.

13. Connelly is an anesthesiologist and represents himself as the creator of the Met-Rx protein drink mix.

14. Progenex is the new company that was formed between VenturePharma, Connelly and MGC in order to commercialize, and bring to market, cutting-edge dairy bioactive protein fractions to be sold in medical and sports nutrition products, such as Progenex SRG, Progenex Recovery, Progenex More Muscle, Progenex Growth and Progenex Medical formulations for bone fractures/osteo-integration, chemotherapy and wound healing applications.

15. BodyRx (which Plaintiffs believe is a dba for Percon) is a separate side business Connelly maintained on his own to sell what Connelly presented to plaintiffs and investors as non-competing protein-enriched products such as chips, cereals, pizza and snacks. However, as will be shown below, Connelly reneged on his agreement not to compete with Progenex and instead used BodyRx to usurp corporate opportunities belonging to Progenex. – in effect, using Progenex as a door-opener to promote BodyRx over Progenex.

16. The gravamen of this complaint is that Connelly entered into the agreements to grow and develop Progenex, but instead breached his contractual, legal and fiduciary duties associated with the agreements and the growth and development of Progenex, all to the detriment of Plaintiffs.

17. Plaintiffs will prove that Connelly made numerous false representations to induce investors to place money with VenturePharma and enter into subscription agreements for the use of their money to be invested in Progenex.

18. Plaintiffs will prove that Connelly has a long history of making misrepresentations about his background, his education, his military service, his alleged scientific, medical and nutritional discoveries, his financial position, his business relationships and agreements and his ability to deliver on the promises that he makes.

19. Plaintiffs will allege below, and further prove, that Connelly's conduct is part of a pattern and practice Connelly has engaged in over the years, deceiving partners, and investors, all in an effort to perpetuate and continue his false, feigned and deceitful image of being a leader, and "guru" in the field of medical and sports nutrition.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

The Contract to Negotiate in Good Faith

20. Prior to June 9, 2009, members of Shared Success were introduced to Connelly. At the time of the introduction, Connelly presented himself as the owner of a company known as Progenex SRG. Connelly went on to describe for Shared Success his vision of creating a new company to commercialize dairy bioactive protein fractions. Connelly represented he had successfully formulated dairy bioactive protein fractions in the past and now saw a greater opportunity to rebrand, rename and repackage these protein formulations. Shared Success was interested in the concept Connelly was discussing and wanted to open a line of further discussions and communications for a potential business relationship with Connelly.

21. On June 9, 2009, Shared Success and Connelly entered into a Contract to Negotiate in Good Faith (Exhibit A hereto) (hereafter "The Contract"), the general purpose of which was to investigate the formation and capitalization of a new company (NEWCO). The purpose of the new company would be to develop and expand the commercial market for Connelly's dairy bioactive protein fractions, such as Progenex SRG.

22. The products to be developed by this new company with these dairy protein fractions used ingredients known as WGFE, Natraboost and TGF-Beta.

23. The new products would be packaged and marketed through the brand of the new company, Progenex.

24. Of utmost important to Shared Success was the ownership rights to the ingredients, including any intellectual property rights to any information, formulas, products or other property rights that could attach to the formulation, creation and marketing of these new products.

25. During the period of time the parties were purportedly negotiating in good faith under Exhibit A, Connelly continually represented to Shared Success and confirmed at all times that the relevant, necessary and applicable component protein formulations were his own, and his ownership of these component formulations included the rights, title and interest to, and in, the ingredients.

26. Connelly further represented, and stated unequivocally, that he had the exclusive rights to the supply of these ingredients.

27. In addition to the representations and promises made in paragraphs 25 and 26 above, and as a further inducement to enter into The Contract, Connelly represented (or rather misrepresented) to Shared Success that: (1) he had no conflicts of interest (Recital C), particularly with BodyRx; (2) "in the event Progenex Australia does not cooperate, Connelly . . . has sufficient power and cause to either shutdown its website and cease distribution under the Progenex name, or foreclose on the assets of the international partnership, where Progenex Australia is in default according to Connelly" (section 1.D.); and (3) he could pledge the exclusive right to the Aquaplex capsule to Progenex (section 1.E.).

28. Pursuant to The Contract, Connelly agreed to a) receive an ownership interest in NEWCO (Progenex), through VenturePharma, b) to a management role in Progenex and c) to a compensation package, under which he was paid an annual salary of $210,000.00.

29. Shared Success has fulfilled its obligations under The Contract. Connelly has not.

The Contribution Agreement

30. In November 2009, VenturePharma, Progenex, Connelly and Murray Goulburn Cooperative Limited, an Australian entity (hereafter "MGC") entered into the Contribution Agreement (Exhibit B hereto) (hereafter "The Agreement"), the general purpose of which was to capitalize Progenex in exchange for the issuance of company stock.

31. Among other things, Connelly expressly agreed to contribute to Progenex the Founder Assets (as described in detail in section 1.2 of the contract and Schedule A thereto) free and clear of all liens or claims. The Founder Assets included, but were not limited to, Connelly's "life work" in the application of dairy bioactive protein fractions and all related rights, formulas and trade secrets, and all rights associated with products currently developed and promoted as "Progenex" and "Progenex SRG, including, but not limited to, associated trademarks, service marks, brand names, customers, trade secrets, software and databases.

32. In consideration of the contribution of the Founder Assets, Connelly received shares of common stock in Progenex.

33. In addition to the representations and promises made above, and as a further inducement to enter into the Contribution Agreement, Connelly represented (or misrepresented) to VenturePharma and Progenex in the months prior to November 2009 that: (1) he had good and marketable title to the Founder Assets, free and clear of all encumbrances (section 4.1); (2) the Founder Assets were sufficient and constituted all assets and rights necessary to effect the purpose of Progenex (section 4.2); (3) the Founder Assets were free of adverse claims (section 4.3); (4) he would not compete with Progenex; (5) he would remain loyal to Progenex; (6) he would not usurp corporate opportunities; (7) he would devote substantially full time to Progenex; (8) he would "carve out" BodyRx and maintain it as a separate, non-competing business; and (9) he would deal in good faith.

34. Progenex and VenturePharma have fulfilled all of their obligations under The Agreement.

Connelly as an Officer and Director of Progenex

35. Connelly was an officer and director of Progenex from November 9, 2009 – April 27, 2010. He resigned both appointments on April 27, 2010, after being confronted by Progenex with his conduct that evidenced his breach of duties to the company.

36. With his appointment as officer and director, Connelly assumed, both expressly and impliedly, a duty of loyalty, a duty of care, a duty of good faith and fair dealing and a fiduciary duty to Progenex. As such, he agreed and was required to refrain from self-dealing, usurping corporate opportunities and/or interfering with Progenex's contracts and business relations, including its efforts to procure additional financing. In particular, and in addition to those duties assumed under The Agreement, Connelly agreed to: (1) pursue Progenex business opportunities as Progenex's, not as his own; (2) to maintain BodyRx as a separate, non-competing business; (3) devote substantially all of his full-time efforts to the promotion and growth of Progenex; (4) negotiate in Progenex's best interests; and (5) disclose to Progenex all conflicts of interest and all facts that would reasonably require disclosure by a fiduciary or one in Connelly's position. Among other compensation, Connelly was paid an annual salary of $210,000.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of the Contract to Negotiate in Good Faith)

By Shared Success Against Connelly)

37. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 36, as though fully set forth and incorporated herein.

38. As alleged hereinabove, on or about June 9, 2009, Connelly executed The Contract with Shared Success. Shared Success has fully performed all conditions, covenants, promises, obligations and requirements to be performed by it under the contract. Connelly has not repudiated or renounced The Contract.

39. Connelly breached The Contract by, among other things: (1) negotiating capitalization terms and agreements with third parties without the involvement of VenturePharma (Para. 1A) including David Meltzer and Progenex Party Limited; (2) failing to participate in VenturePharma and demanding a different investment relationship (Para 1B); 3) failing to include VenturePharma in negotiations with Aquaplex (Para 1E); (4) renegotiating the minimum contribution trigger from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 and refusing to make the deal because of representations made to other investors which were unknown to Shared Success (Para 1C); (5) failing to foreclose on the Australian international partnership after demand was made to do so (Para 1D); (6) using Shared Success contacts for the purpose of promoting his own products with BodyRx (Para 1G); (7) failing to negotiate in good faith and at all times using the negotiations to set the stage for later use of the new company (Progenex) to promote and advance his other products and competing company's interests (Para 2) and (8) failing to limit BodyRX to food products intended for the general market place (Recitals Para E).

40. By reason of Connelly's breach of The Contract, Shared Success has been damaged in an amount according to proof at trial, but in no event less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court. Further, under the contract, Shared Success is entitled to recover attorney's fees and expenses as provided for in The Contract.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of the Contribution Agreement)

By VenturePharma and Progenex Against Connelly

41. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 40, as though fully set forth and incorporated herein.

42. As alleged hereinabove, in or about November 2009, Connelly executed The Contribution Agreement ("The Agreement") with Progenex, VenturePharma, and Murray Goulburn Cooperative Limited ("MGC"). (Exhibit B). VenturePharma and Progenex fully performed all conditions, covenants, promises, obligations and requirements to be performed by them under The Agreement. Connelly has not repudiated or renounced The Agreement.

43. Connelly breached The Agreement by, among other things: (1) failing to contribute to Progenex the Founder Assets as set forth on Exhibit A to the Contribution Agreement as required free and clear of all liens or claims, or at all (Para 4.1 and Para 7.2); (2) failing to locate or secure investors for Progenex; (3) violating Paragraph 6.1 by making false and untrue statements prior to and at the date of closing; (4) failing to perform all obligations as required by Paragraph 6.2; (5) failing to comply with Exhibit H as required by Paragraph 6.13; (6) violating Paragraph 7.1 by making false warranties and representations as of the time of closing; (8) failing to devote substantially full time to Progenex;

44. Moreover, on information and belief, Connelly regularly and intentionally misled MGC (another investor in Progenex and a signatory to The Agreement) related to the financing efforts and resources of VenturePharma with the intent to create doubt and discredit the efforts of VenturePharma.

45. By reason of Connelly's breach of The Agreement, Progenex and VenturePharma have been damaged in an amount according to proof at trial, but in no event less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court. Further, under The Agreement, Progenex and VenturePharma are entitled to recover attorney's fees and expenses.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

(Fraudulent Inducement To Enter Into Contract to Negotiate in Good Faith

(By Shared Success Against Connelly and BodyRx)

46. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 45, as though fully set forth and incorporated herein.

47. Connelly, in his individual capacity and as owner, agent and representative of BodyRx, made misrepresentations and promises as to material matters as part of a scheme to induce and defraud Shared Success to enter into The Contract and contribute its time, efforts and money to the creation and promotion of Progenex.

48. The representations were made over a period of time, in numerous face-to-face meetings with Connelly, numerous email communications and in numerous telephone conversations. The misrepresentations began in approximately March 2009 and continued through June 9, 2009 at which time The Contract was signed.

49. The misrepresentations were made to representatives of Shared Success, including but not limited to Ryan Page and Aaron Thomas. Additionally, misrepresentations were made to current and prospective investors of Shared Success.

50. The following constitutes a list of many of the representations, which were made by Connelly, that at the time he made them he knew them to be false. This is not intended to be all exhaustive and Plaintiffs continue to investigate and compile the list of the representations ultimately discovered to be false.

a. His educational background.

b. He discovered the ingredient later named Metamyosyn.

c. He was the creator of the original Met-Rx formula.

d. He had sold his company, Met-Rx for $108 million to Rexall Sundown.

e. He had created a business (Met-Rx) that had gone from $0 to $45 million in its first nine months.

f. The ProgenexSRG.com website had a reorder rate above 80% and was generating gross sales greater than $60,000 per month.

g. He had numerous clinical studies that had been conducted related to the efficacy of the specialized ingredients for both sports and medical applications.

h. WGFE was essential to the success of the medical division only obtainable through MGC when in fact the active ingredient is lactoferrin.

i. MGC's Natraboost was also obtainable only from MGC and was the only patented and proprietary ingredient in the world that could produce rapid recovery after exhaustive activity, based upon a demonstrated study, which was represented as using Natraboost.

j. That efficacy for his research and claims, which demonstrated unprecedented, wound healing and tissue regeneration as part of a rat study purportedly were conducted by he and Dr. Robert Demling.

k. That he identified all of the specialized formulations and their ingredients which together formed the medical composite as being generally regarded as safe ("GRAS STATUS) as defined by the FDA.

l. Met-RX was the only commercialized protein supplement document by published third party peer review research to yield substantial enhancement of tissue growth and regeneration.

m. He could pledge the exclusive right to the Aquaplex capsule to Progenex.

n. That he did compete with the new company in the area of sports nutrition, medicine or bodybuilding.

51. Each of the above representations was false at the time made. The true facts are:

a. He did not graduate from the schools and obtain the degrees, or do the fellowship, internships and studies as represented.

b. He did not discover the ingredient Metamyosyn

c. He was not the creator of the Met-Rx formula.

d. He did not sell his company for $108 million.

e. He did not create a business (Met-Rx) that had gone from $0 to $45 million in its first nine months.

f. The ProgenexSRG.com website did not have a reorder rate above 80% and was not generating gross sales greater than $60,000 per month.

g. He did not conduct or author any clinical studies that had been conducted related to the efficacy of the specialized ingredients for both sports and medical applications.

h. WGFE is not essential to the success of the medical division and lactoferrin is available worldwide.

i. MGC's Natraboost is not the only patented and proprietary ingredient in the world that could produce rapid recovery after exhaustive activity.

j. That efficacy for his research and claims which demonstrated unprecedented wound healing and tissue regeneration as part of a rat study purported to have been done by he and Dr. Robert Demling in fact was not Demling's study and not commissioned by Connelly.

k. That he identified all of the special ingredients, which together formed the medical composite as being generally regarded as safe ("GRAS STATUS) as defined by the FDA when some ingredients were not regarded as safe.

l. Met-RX was not documented by published third party peer review research to yield substantial enhancement of tissue grow.

m. He could not pledge the exclusive right to the Aquaplex capsule.

56. While negotiating The Contract, Connelly did not disclose his ultimate plan, which was to use the investment efforts conducted by Progenex to source funding for BodyRx and attempt to tap his network of fund sources to raise money for BodyRx. Other acts demonstrating he had no intent to follow through with his duties and obligations under The Agreement include: a) Connelly approached VMG Partners to seek investment in BodyRx products using the Aquaplex vessel or capsule he had pledged as an exclusive to Progenex; b) failure to disclose his intent to market the BodyRx products outside of agreed-upon distribution channels, such as Costco and grocery stores, and into competing distribution channels, such as gyms, fitness centers and sports-nutrition retailers such like GNC.

57. In addition to the misrepresentations Connelly made, he also knowingly and intentionally withheld information that was solely within his knowledge and which is material, and would have been material, to the decision to invest or joint venture with Connelly. Specifically, Connelly withheld that:

a. Met-Rx had been sued by the Federal Trade Commission in the matter entitled Federal Trade Commission v. Met-Rx, USA (USDC, Central District of California). Inthat suit, it was contended that no scientific data or studies demonstrated that Met-Rx products are safe. In fact, it was alleged that the products contained steroidal compounds.

b. Connelly had falsely represented Met-Rx as being associated with, and endorsed by, the well-respected Cooper Clinic in Dallas, Texas. The Cooper Clinic demanded Connelly cease and desist using its name.

c. In a Dateline NBC report, it was demonstrated that Met-Rx failed to provide peer-reviewed documentation to substantiate its claim of enhancing muscular development.

d. Numerous articles and reports had been written questioning Met-Rx, concluding Met-Rx has no listed ingredients separating it from any other product on the market.

e. The "magic ingredient" of Met-Rx is milk-based and you can get the same benefit from milk.

f. Met-Rx was described as "just another high-priced item that capitalizes upon athlete's wishful thinking."

g. Connelly had openly acknowledged that there are no conclusive studies, but states studies will "eventually" prove the superiority of his product.

h. Connelly has litigated with many prior business partners and has been found to have entered into business contracts with no intent to perform.

58. These are just examples of the numerous, relevant information intentionally withheld from Shared Success, VenturePharma, Progenex and individual investors.

59. Connelly knew that he did not intend to perform his promises in the way he represented to Shared Success. Rather, Connelly intended to enrich himself at the expense of and to the detriment of Shared Success and Progenex.

60. Connelly made the misrepresentations, promises, and omissions with the intent and purpose of inducing actions by Shared Success, including, inter alia, entering into The Contract and causing Shared Success to invest time, efforts and money in Progenex. When making the false representations, promises and said omissions, Connelly knew that Shared Success would rely on the representations to its detriment.

61. Connelly and BodyRx colluded, conspired, or otherwise acted in concert or with the express consent of each other to do the acts alleged above and are therefore liable for these acts.

62. Shared Success was unaware of the falsity of Connelly's representations and promises. Shared Success reasonably and justifiably acted in reliance on Connelly's representations to its detriment. Connelly was the sole source of trust of this information, and he provided, at times, false and incomplete information. As a direct result of Connelly's false representations, promises and omissions, Shared Success entered into The Contract and invested its time, efforts and money in the creation and development of Progenex. Had Shared Success known the true facts and the actual intentions of Connelly, Shared Success would not have acted as it did.

63. As a direct or proximate result of Shared Success's reasonable and justifiable reliance on Connelly's misrepresentations and promises, Shared Success has suffered damages in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this court.

64. In acting as alleged herein, Connelly acted with malice, fraud and oppression. Accordingly, Shared Success is entitled to recover exemplary damages. Alternatively, Connelly intentionally misrepresented facts, deceived Shared Success and concealed material facts known to him with the intention of thereby depriving Shared Success of property and/or legal rights or otherwise causing injury to Shared Success, such that his acts constituted a fraud as defined by California Civil Code section 3294, thereby justifying an award of exemplary damages.

65. Furthermore, as demonstrated by Connelly's prior conduct with other business partners, he has a pattern and practice of entering into agreements with no intent to perform. Accordingly, punitive damages are appropriate to defer such wrongful, intentional and fraudulent conduct in the future.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Fraudulent Inducement To The Contribution Agreement)

By VenturePharma and Progenex Against Connelly and BodyRx

66. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 65, as though fully set forth and incorporated herein.

67. Connelly, in his individual capacity and as a representative of BodyRx, made additional misrepresentations and promises as to material matters as part of a scheme to induce and defraud VenturePharma and Progenex to enter into The Agreement and, in the case of VenturePharma, contribute its Past Efforts (as that term is defined in section 1.1 of the contract). Among other things, and in addition to the representations, promises, and omissions made above and incorporated herein, Connelly misrepresented to VenturePharma and Progenex that: (1) he had good and marketable title to he Founder Assets, free and clear of all encumbrances and he would transfer all assets to Progenex; (2) the Founder Assets were sufficient and constituted all assets and rights necessary to effect the purpose of Progenex; (3) the Founder Assets were free of adverse claims; (4) he would not compete with Progenex; (5) he would remain loyal to Progenex; (6) he would not usurp corporate opportunities; (7) he would devote substantially full time to Progenex; (8) he would "carve out" BodyRx and maintain it as a separate, non-competing business;

68. As a further inducement for VP to continue its investment into Progenex, Connelly represented that he would personally fund any shortcoming in the company's funding, if MGC moved to revert.

69. While negotiating The Agreement, Connelly did not disclose that he intended to attempt to tap his network of fund sources to raise money for BodyRx. Indeed, Connelly approached VMG Partners, and Robert Schult, VMG co-founder specifically, on or about Feb. 17 (despite being explicitly requested to NOT contact VMB on his own, as all future conversations should be managed as partners) to seek investment in BodyRx products using the Aquaplex vessel or capsule he had pledged as an exclusive to Progenex. Thus, Connelly had no intention of negotiating exclusivity for the capsules for Progenex.

70. Connelly also did not disclose his intent to market the BodyRx products outside of agreed-upon distribution channels, such as Costco and grocery stores, and into competing distribution channels, such as gyms, fitness centers and sports-nutrition retailers like GNC. In fact, later on, several of Progenex's strategic partners, such as Fred Hatfield and Elias Karras, approached Progenex to ask about the "BodyRx deal" and when they might receive BodyRx products, clearly evidenced by the fact that Connelly was self-dealing and promoting BodyRx

71. Connelly routinely sent BodyRx bars to Progenex athletes and was courting them for sponsorship.

72. Connelly and BodyRx colluded, conspired, or otherwise acted in concert or with the express consent of each other to do the acts alleged above and are therefore liable for these acts.

73. VenturePharma and Progenex were unaware of the falsity of Connelly's representations and promises. VenturePharma and Progenex reasonably and justifiably acted in reliance on Connelly's representations to their detriment.

74. As a direct result of Connelly's false representations and promises, VenturePharma and Progenex, inter alia, entered into the Contribution Agreement and invested its Past Efforts in the creation and development of Progenex. Had VenturePharma and Progenex known the true facts and the actual intentions of Connelly, VenturePharma and Progenex would not have acted as they did.

75. As a direct or proximate result of VenturePharma and Progenex's reasonable and justifiable reliance on Connelly's misrepresentations and promises, VenturePharma and Progenex have suffered damages in excess of the jurisdictional minimum of this court.

76. In acting as alleged herein, Connelly acted with malice, fraud and oppression. Accordingly, VenturePharma and Progenex are entitled to recover exemplary damages. Alternatively, Connelly intentionally misrepresented facts, deceived VenturePharma and Progenex and concealed material facts known to him with the intention of thereby depriving VenturePharma and Progenex of property and/or legal rights or otherwise causing injury to VenturePharma and Progenex, such that his acts constituted a fraud as defined by California Civil Code section 3294, thereby justifying an award of exemplary damages.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Common Law and Statutory Duties of Loyalty)

By Progenex Against Andrich and Connelly

77. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 76, as though fully set forth and incorporated herein.

78. Connelly was both an employee, corporate officer and Board member of Progenex and as such owed a fiduciary and statutory duty of loyalty to Progenex.

79. Connelly knowingly acted against Progenex's interests in connection with both The Agreement and his role as corporate officer and director.

80. For example, Connelly, as chief executive officer of Progenex, negotiated a sweetheart employment deal for friend and business associate Andrich who is alleged to have been in conspiracy with Connelly to further Connelly's wrongful goals. Connelly hired Andrich to be Progenex's executive vice-president of sports marketing in exchange for an attractive salary and compensation package. As such, Andrich had a duty of loyalty to Progenex. However, Connelly and Andrich never disclosed to Progenex that Andrich was simultaneously working for BodyRx or that he would continue to work for BodyRx while on the Progenex payroll. Indeed, Connelly told Andrich that he (Andrich) could simultaneously market the BodyRx products while on the Progenex payroll and could market those products even to Progenex's strategic partners. As a consequence of this moonlighting arrangement, Andrich rarely reported to work, and by March 2010, he reported to the office only about two hours per month.

81. Following Connelly's resignation as a member of Progenex's Board, Connelly nominated Andrich to become a member of the Board since Connelly knew that Andrich would continue to advance Connelly's personal goals over the interests of Progenex.

82. At the time Connelly nominated Andrich to the Board, Connelly did not disclose to Progenex and the Board that Andrich had been found responsible for conspiracy to commit fraud and money laundering and had been ordered to pay $10 million in restitution.

83. Connelly and Andrich held secret meetings between themselves and with third parties for the purpose of advancing the interests of Connelly and BodyRX.

84. Connelly and Andrich commenced an operation to divert clients, suppliers and to create a competing line of products to Progenex products.

85. As a result of these breaches of duties owed to Progenex, Progenex has been harmed and suffered damages in an amount not yet fully ascertained but within the jurisdictional limit of this Court.

86. As alleged above, Connelly and Andrich knowingly acted on behalf of BodyRx, a party whose interests are and were adverse to Progenex in connection with: (1) the Contribution Agreement; (2) the development and commercialization of the Progenex products, such as Progenex SRG, Progenex Recovery, Progenex More Muscle and Progenex Growth; (3) Progenex's exclusive use of the Aquaplex delivery vessels; and (4) the placement of BodyRx products outside of agreed-upon distribution channels, such as Costco and grocery stores, and into competing distribution channels, such as gyms, fitness centers and sports-nutrition retailers like GNC. Like Andrich above, and in concert with Andrich, Connelly marketed BodyRx products to Progenex's strategic partners; indeed, key partners like Fred Hatfield and Elias Karras, related professional athletes and research partners, were coming back to Progenex and inquiring about BodyRx products.

87. As another example of Connelly's breach of the duty of loyalty, Connelly, like Andrich, rarely, if ever, showed up for work. Thus, Connelly failed to devote substantially all of his full-time efforts to the promotion and growth of Progenex.

88. Connelly met, or allowed Andrich to meet, VMG Partners to discuss the Aquaplex vessel, which had been pledged to Progenex as an exclusive. Upon information and belief, Connelly tried to induce them to compel another of their acquisition targets to use the bottle capsules to further that business. Not only did this jeopardize Progenex's deal with VMG Partners, it further demonstrates that Connelly had no intention of negotiating exclusivity for the capsules for Progenex. Thus, Connelly failed to disclose to Progenex all conflicts of interest and all facts that would reasonably require disclosure by a fiduciary or one in Connelly's position.

89. As a further example of Connelly's breach of the duty of loyalty, as well as the Contribution Agreement itself, during the time that Connelly was still an officer and director of Progenex, while Progenex was involved in negotiations with its main supplier, Connelly and his attorneys stated they intend to "stop this deal" with the supplier unless Connelly's newly revealed personal, non-negotiated, and outrageous demands regarding BodyRx were met.

90. Connelly breached his duties by intentionally trashing the sports business to sector investors with the intent to force Progenex to miss the $5,000,000 reversion milestone, in order to reclaim the assets.

91. Connelly and Andrich were creating a competing website, drscottconnelly.com. This website markets "Metabolic Advantage" related to Metabolic Syndrome, which is specifically defined as part of Connelly's original asset contribution to Progenex (schedule A).

92. Perhaps the most egregious example of Connelly's breach of the duty of loyalty is the "nutritional sting operation" he conspired to perpetrate with former Progenex operations director (and now BodyRx/K9Rx employee) Don Aspinall and newly-designated Progenex board member Vince Andrich. Connelly resigned from the Progenex board on April 27, 2010. His hand-picked replacement to the board was Andrich who assumed that position on May 10, 2010. Don Aspinall resigned his position as Progenex's operations director on May 4, 2010. At a time when both Connelly and Aspinall were employed by Progenex, Connelly, Andrich and Aspinall secretly planned to launch a new website: DrScottConnelly.com. To wit, on May 13, 2010, after Connelly had been confronted with his wrongful conduct, and only nine days after he resigned from Progenex as CEO and Director, Aspinall sent to Andrich's email address at Progenex an email with attached artwork/mockup for the DrScottConnelly.com website. In the email, Aspinall refers to the DrScottConnelly.com conspiracy as, "Bringing the future of nutritional sting operations to a douche bag near you." The attached mockup (page two of Exhibit C) shows that Connelly and his co-conspirators: (1) copied actual product photographs from the existing Progenex website; (2) used the Connelly likeness for the DrScottConnelly.com website in direct competition with Progenex and in contravention of Connelly's pledge to Progenex of his likeness; (3) superimposed the Progenex logo onto a likeness of Connelly; (4) infringed upon the trademark of Progenex; (5) marketed "Metabolic Advantage," which was part of the Connelly asset contribution to Progenex defined above as the Founder Assets; and (6) marketed "Clinical Nutrition," which was also part of the Connelly asset contribution to Progenex defined above as the Founder Assets. Four days later, Aspinall followed up with another email to Connelly and Andrich's email address at Progenex with the subject line "Douche Bags" clearly referring to Progenex (Exhibit D).

93. In addition to this conduct constituting a breach of The Agreement and breaches of his fiduciary duties, as well as demonstrating Connelly's lack of intent to honor his contractual obligations, the launch of this new website or any other website, where both investors and consumers rely upon Dr. Connelly's name, likeness and dedication to Progenex and its products, will cause confusion to both investors and consumers. This reveals a clear and identifiable disloyalty to Connelly's original commitment to Progenex, as defined by both the Contribution Agreement and Connelly's duty of loyalty to Progenex as officer and director. Additionally, this competing activity is in direct conflict with Andrich's fiduciary duty to Progenex as board member.

97. Progenex has suffered and continues to suffer irreparable harm and injury as a result of Connelly's actions and lacks an adequate remedy at law, in that damages may be difficult to ascertain, and, unless Injunctive relief is granted, Connelly will continue to injure Progenex's business, goodwill and reputation. Progenex is therefore entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction preventing

Connelly from engaging in the aforementioned conduct and/or for assignment of all rights in and to the inventions, business methods, ideas and other intellectual property that were invented or otherwise acquired by Connelly during or by virtue of his employment with Progenex.

98. Connelly's conduct was willful, oppressive and malicious, therefore entitling Progenex to recover punitive and exemplary damages in an amount adequate in relation to Connelly's net worth, so as to punish and make an example of Connelly and deter such wrongful behavior in the future.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Violations of Labor Code 2860)

By Progenex Against Connelly

100. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2860, "[e]verything which an employee acquires by virtue of his employment, except the compensation which is due to him from his employer, belongs to the employer, whether acquired lawfully or unlawfully, or during or after the expiration of the term of his employment."

101. Pursuant to Labor Code section 2863, "[a]n employee who has any business to transact on his own account, similar to that entrusted to him by his employer, shall always give the preference to the business of the employer."

102. Progenex is informed and believes that Connelly has obtained and continues to obtain profits and gains from the use of the aforementioned products, business methods, business contacts and other intellectual property, thus entitling Progenex to restitution or disgorgement. The full extent of such profits and gains is not currently known, but which includes, inter alia, profits and gains.

103. Progenex has suffered and continues to suffer irreparable harm and injury as a result of Connelly's actions and lacks an adequate remedy at law, in that damages may be difficult to ascertain, and, unless Injunctive relief is granted, Connelly will continue to injure Progenex's business, goodwill and reputation. Progenex is therefore entitled to a preliminary and permanent injunction preventing Connelly from engaging in the aforementioned conduct and/or for assignment of all rights in and to the inventions, business methods, ideas and other intellectual property that were invented or otherwise acquired by Connelly during or by virtue of his employment with Progenex.

104. Connelly's conduct was willful, oppressive and malicious, therefore entitling Progenex to recover punitive and exemplary damages in an amount adequate in relation to Connelly's net worth, so as to punish and make an example of Connelly and deter such wrongful behavior in the future.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Breach of Fiduciary Duty)

By Progenex Against Connelly, Andrich, and BodyRx

105. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 102, as though fully set forth and incorporated herein.

106. As alleged, Connelly and Andrich were employees, officers and directors of Progenex. Serving as both officer and director, both were responsible, at least in part, for: (1) business development; (2) promoting Progenex products, and not those of his own or other competitors; (3) finding investors and strategic business partners for Progenex; (4) informing Progenex of new business opportunities; (4) keeping Progenex informed at all times; (5) disclosing conflicts of interest; and (6) maintaining Progenex's confidential information. Connelly and Andrich, as directors, were in a fiduciary, trust relationship with Progenex. As such, Connelly and Andrich owed a fiduciary duty, as well as other duties of trust, to Progenex. As alleged BodyRx was Connelly's side business.

107. Connelly and Andrich breached their fiduciary duties to Progenex by, inter alia, acting without the advice and consent of Progenex, creating/maintaining BodyRx to compete with Progenex, concealing the actions of BodyRx, diverting business opportunities to BodyRx, Andrich and others, colluding with Andrich and BodyRx to divert business to BodyRx, employing and conspiring with Andrich while he was still engaged at BodyRx, and pitching the exclusive Aquaplex delivery vessel to others, all to the benefit and enrichment of Connelly and BodyRx and to the detriment of Progenex.

108. BodyRx, working in collusion with Connelly, participated with Connelly in the breaches of trust. BodyRx's participation was both active and for the purpose of advancing its own interests or financial advantage. As such, BodyRx is liable for aiding and abetting Connelly's breaches of trust.

109. As a proximate result of Connelly's breach of his fiduciary duties to Progenex, Progenex has been damaged in an amount according to proof at trial, but in no event less that the jurisdictional minimum of this court.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

(Intentional Interference with Business Advantage)

By Progenex Against Connelly, Andrich, and BodyRx

111. Progenex had existing, ongoing and valuable business relationships with its strategic partners, including, but not limited to, MGC, Hilmar Cheese, Zimmer, Fred Hatfield, Elias Karras, VMG Partners and other, employees, consultants, vendors and customers and had a reasonable expectation that those relationships would continue unless wrongfully interfered with. Connelly and BodyRx (and Andrich) knew of the relationships between Progenex and its strategic partners, employees, consultants, vendors and customers and of Progenex's expectations.

112. Connelly, BodyRx and Andrich have engaged in the following, among other, wrongful conduct with the intention of disrupting Progenex's business relationships and of interfering with Progenex's prospective business advantage:

(b) Sending email to database of Progenex contacts and relationships indicating that he is "pursuing other projects with Dr. Connelly outside of Progenex," while Connelly is the CEO.

(c) Disparaging Progenex and its management for the purpose of causing a supplier and causing the supplier (Hilmar) to cease production (mid-order) of the key ingredient in Progenex's More Muscle product.

(d) Contacting Zimmer Orthopedic on or about May 14, 2010, to disclose IP (andgiogenen) that was not owned by PDB, nor ever negotiated for, as part of MGC's contribution.

(e) Forcing Aquaplex to cutoff supply (mid-order) for its Mix on Demand delivery device or capsule, leaving Progenex without the capacity to supply single-servings to customers.

(f) Connelly and his lawyer Sam Krane contacting PDB investors Mike Carey and Mike Moosebrugger to influence them to rescind funds, sue VenturePharma and Progenex, and join Connelly against VenturePharma and Progenex.

(g) Connelly sent an email to Mike Moosbrugger, highlighting the celebration of what Connelly refers to as the "Progenex obituary notice," to further influence VP investors to act against VP and Progenex and rescind their investment.

(h) In Mid-June, 2010, shutting down the company merchant account, alleging fraud and questionable management practices, causing Progenex to be unable to accept payment for orders. Progenex is later cleared for no wrongdoing and credit line increased.

(j) Pushing the placement of BodyRx products outside of agreed-upon distribution channels, such as Costco and grocery stores, and into competing distribution channels, such as gyms, fitness centers and sports-nutrition retailers like GNC, entities with whom Progenex had ongoing business relationships;

(k) With Andrich, diverting business from Progenex to BodyRx, such that this business would ultimately leave Progenex;

113. Progenex is informed and believes, and based thereon alleges, that defendants' actions were undertaken for the purpose of damaging Progenex and rendering it unable to compete effectively.

114. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' conduct, Progenex has lost business and is at risk of losing more business. As a proximate result of defendants' conduct, Progenex has sustained and will continue to sustain damages in an amount to be proven at trial, but in no event less than the jurisdictional minimum of this court.

115. Defendants Connelly and BodyRx's actions were undertaken willfully, with malice and conscious and reckless disregard for Progenex's rights and were approved, ratified and/or performed by defendants and/or by the agents and officers of defendants. Progenex therefore is entitled to exemplary or punitive damages from defendants Connelly and BodyRx, and each of them, in such amounts as may be necessary to punish defendants for their wrongful acts.

116. Unless restrained, defendants will continue to engage in the acts and conduct set forth above, which have resulted and will continue to result in irreparable injury to Progenex for which monetary damages would not afford adequate relief, in that they would not completely compensate for the injury to Progenex's business reputation and goodwill. The exact extent, nature and amount of Progenex's injuries and damages are extremely difficult to ascertain. Defendants' continuing conduct may also generate multiple suits. Plaintiff therefore requests the court to issue a permanent injunction restraining and enjoining defendants, and anyone acting at their direction or in concert with them, from interfering with Progenex's prospective business advantage.

WHEREFORE, plaintiffs pray for judgment as follows:

1. As to Each Cause of Action: All compensatory damages according to proof;

2. As to the Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, and Seventh Causes of Action: Punitive Damages according to proof;

3. As to the First and Second Cause of Action: Attorneys fees and Costs as provided for by Contract;

4. As to the Third, Fourth, and Seventh Causes of Action: Disgorgement and Restitution

5. All other relief the Court deems proper in the premises

EXHIBIT “A”

CONTRACT TO NEGOTIATE IN GOOD FAITH

THIS CONTRACT TO NEGOTIATE IN GOOD FAITH ("CONTRACT") is made as of June 9, 2009, by and between Dr. Scott Connelly, an individual, or assigns ("CONNELLY") and SHARED SUCCESS LLC, a Wyoming Limited Liability Company ("SS") or assigns. For convenience, CONNELLY and SS shall hereinafter be referred to collectively as the "PARTIES," and individually as a "PARTY."

RECITALS:

A. The PARTIES have agreed to add CONNELLY to an existing entity, ("VENTUREPHARMA"), currently wholly owned by SS, to serve as a holding company for the collective interests of CONNELLY and SS.

B. The PARTIES agree that VENTUREPHARMA will lead the effort to prepare and capitalize "NEWCO" (also referred to as "Formula X") with at least One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) under favorable terms and conditions, while providing best efforts to minimize dilution and maximize shareholder equity. The PARTIES may agree to accept more capital, conditioned upon a use of proceeds that demonstrates a requirement, and whereby NEWCO can substantiate a valuation greater than Twenty Five Million Dollars ($25,000,000), which may be offered as part of a Series A Round subscription.

C. The PARTIES have agreed that "FORMULA X," currently being marketed by CONNELLY under the name Progenex, defined as dairy bio-active proteins (proteins that require manufacturing methods beyond conventional processing in order to enrich the end product with specific fraction(s)) and any application or derivative thereof will be the sole property of VENTUREPHARMA. The commercialization of FORMULA X shall be the primary focus for NEWCO. However, CONNELLY represents that no conflicts exist through any exclusive licensing or distribution agreements, by and between any individuals or partners, domestic or foreign, which would preclude future expansion into domestic consumer markets, should the PARTIES determine favorable at some later date.

D. The PARTIES have agreed to rebrand and rename CONNELLY's proprietary protein formulation, to be owned exclusively by VENTUREPHARMA and utilized exclusively for all NEWCO business activities. All former and subsequent intellectual property rights, patents, and patents pending, related to FORMULA X, or it's current brand, Progenex (CONNELLY's dairy bio-active proprietary protein), obtained by VENTUREPHARMA or currently owned by CONNELLY, shall be transferred to NEWCO at the time of Initial Capitalization and formation.

E. The PARTIES have agreed that whey protein-based "FOOD PRODUCTS" not containing FORMULA X shall remain the sole property and pursuit of CONNELLY, and shall not be contributed to VENTUREPHARMA or NEWCO.

F. The PARTIES have agreed in principle to some, but not all, of the material terms and conditions surrounding the formation of VENTUREPHARMA.

G. The PARTIES now desire to specify in writing those terms and conditions, legally obligating each PARTY to negotiate in good faith the remaining terms and conditions.

AGREEMENT:

NOW, THEREFORE, in exchange for the mutual promises contained herein, the Parties agree to the following:

1. While of the addition of CONNELLY to VENTUREPHARMA and the formation and capitalization of NEWCO has yet to be formalized, the following matters are understood and agreed upon:

A. Capitalization of NEWCO. The PARTIES agree that VENTUREPHARMA will lead all capitalization efforts and will act as the exclusive agent to negotiate on behalf of VENTUREPHARMA and NEWCO, to embody all the terms, conditions and operating procedures to initiate the formation and launch of NEWCO.

B. CONNELLY's Participation in VENTUREPHARMA. CONNELLY or assigns shall be added as a member to VENTUREPHARMA, where CONNELLY shall maintain his equity stake. VENTUREPHARMA shall serve as a holding company for the equity interests of the PARTIES, provided the minimum capitalization of NEWCO for greater than One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) is achieved, either through SS Investors, its syndicated partners, or either party's related resources, thereby triggering the automatic addition of CONNELLY to VENTUREPHARMA and the formation of NEWCO.

C. Efforts of VENTUREPHARMA and Ownership Interest. It is understood and acknowledged by CONNELLY that VENTUREPHARMA has made considerable progress to substantiate a current pre-money valuation for NEWCO of approximately Thirty Million Dollars ($30,000,000), by establishing a high level of interest, leading to subsequent meetings with qualified investor groups. As such, it appears likely that the initial capitalization could be as high as Five Million Dollars ($5,000,000), over the previously anticipated minimum of One Million Dollars ($1,000,000) in capital commitments, and where the value VENTUREPHARMA is attempting to establish could be as much as 15X greater than anticipated, as outlined by the preceding Contract to Negotiate in Good Faith. Accordingly, the Parties mutually agree to equal ownership in VENTUREPHARMA and to proportionately dilute as deemed necessary for additional investors within NEWCO. However, in no case shall either Party own less than 20% net interest in NEWCO post funding.

D. Progenex Australia. CONNELLY represents and warrants that he maintains use rights to the name Progenex, Progenex SRG, and has control over its website, domestic marketing and distribution. CONNELLY has additionally agreed, through VENTUREPHARMA, to negotiate the acquisition or "fold-in," of Progenex Australia, within VENTUREPHARMA, in exchange for a membership interest of less than Five Percent (5%) of VENTUREPHARMA, along with a possible exclusive supply agreement for _____ to NEWCO. However, in the event that Progenex Australia does not cooperate, Connelly represents and warrants that he has sufficient power and cause, to either, shut down its website and cease distribution under the Progenex name, or; foreclose on the assets of the international partnership, where Progenex Australia is in default according to CONNELLY.

E. Aquaplex LLC. CONNELLY represents and warrants that he maintains an equity interest and significant control of the Aquaplex entity. CONNELLY has additionally agreed to, through VENTUREPHARMA, to negotiate an exclusive relationship with Aquaplex, for the use of its vessel as a protein delivery device, or, to facilitate through NEWCO the funding of Aquaplex in exchange for equity and exclusive rights to the delivery mechanism.

F. Management of VENTUREPHARMA. VENTUREPHARMA shall be managed exclusively by its Managing Member(s) or Board of Directors, wherein SS shall Chair one (1) non-removable seat and CONNELLY shall Chair one (1) non-removable seat. The Board of Managers or Directors shall control VENTUREPHARMA and it's subsidiaries on a per-capita, majority vote basis, and not in accordance with ownership percentage. However, the PARTIES have agreed that CONNELLY shall have exclusive say with respect to the use of his name and promotional events that substantiate claims of his products. The Parties are currently negotiating additional decision making rights within VENTUREPHARMA, although intend to lobby for exclusive control over NEWCO by VENTUREPHARMA.

G. Exclusive Rights. Under no circumstance shall either Party have the right to independently use any marketing, promotional or investment materials, created while this Contract is in place or hereafter, unless for the purpose of the formation of NEWCO. Moreover, neither Party shall be entitled to accept investments for same or similar, either through subscription or loans, from Investors introduced or solicited during the term of this Contract.

H. Organization Expense Allowance. NEWCO shall reimburse the PARTIES for all approved "out of pocket" travel and organizational expenses, Including but not limited to, airfare and hotel accommodations and other expenses related to the funding of NEWCO. Reimbursements will occur post-funding of NEWCO and be booked as "Organizational Costs."

I. Post-Funding Officer Compensation. The PARTIES shall mutually select the appropriate Officers and support personnel in accordance with their merit, qualifications, and compensatory benefits that satisfy NEWCO's corporate culture. Key Officers shall receive compensation at comparable market rates, plus additional bonuses and stock options, however; subject to the approval of NEWCO's compensation committee, currently comprised of VENTUREPHARMA.

2. During the term of this Contract, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to reach agreement on the outstanding points of the VENTUREPHARMA Agreement. It shall not be considered good faith negotiating to conduct parallel negotiations with other persons or entities regarding the transaction contemplated hereunder, to fail to disclose material information regarding the transaction, to refuse to negotiate, or to insist on changing the terms agreed to in Section 1.

3. This Contract constitutes the complete and exclusive statement of agreement among the Parties with respect to the subject matter herein and therein and replace and supersede all prior written and oral agreements or statements by and among the Parties or any of them. No representation, statement, condition or warranty not contained in this Contract will be binding on the Parties or have any force or effect whatsoever.

4. This Contract shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Parties, and their respective successors and assigns.

5. Nothing in this Contract shall confer any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Contract on any person or entity other than the Parties and their respective successors and assigns nor shall anything in this Contract relieve or discharge the obligation or liability of any third person to any Party to this Contract, nor shall any provision give any third person any right of subrogation or action over or against any Party to this Contract.

6. All headings herein are inserted only for convenience and ease of reference and are not to be considered in the construction or interpretation of any provision of this Agreement.

7. If any claim is made by any Party relating to any conflict, omission or ambiguity in this Contract, no presumption or burden of proof or persuasion shall be implied by virtue of the fact that this Contract was prepared by or at the request of a particular Party or his counsel. Numbered or lettered articles, sections and subsections herein contained refer to articles, sections and subsections of this Agreement unless otherwise expressly stated.

8. This Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of California. Each Party hereby consents to the exclusive jurisdiction of the state and federal courts sitting in California in any action on a claim arising out of, under or in connection with this Contract or the transactions contemplated by this Contract. Each Party further agrees that personal jurisdiction over him or her may be effected by service of process by registered or certified mail addressed to Parties as provided in Section 10 of this Contract, and that when so made shall be as if served upon him or her personally within the State of California.

9. If any provision of this Contract or the application of such provision to any person or circumstance shall be held invalid, the remainder of this Contract or the application of such provision to persons or circumstances other than those to which it is held invalid shall not be affected thereby.

10. Notices given under this Contract shall be in writing and shall either be served personally or delivered by first class registered or certified, return receipt requested U.S. mail, postage prepaid. Notices may also effectively be given by transmittal over electronic transmitting devices such as telex, facsimile or telecopy machine, if the Party to whom the notice is being sent has such a device in its office, provided a complete copy of any notice so transmitted shall also be mailed in the same manner as required for a mailed notice. Notices shall be deemed received at the earlier of actual receipt or three (3) days following deposit in U.S. mail, postage prepaid. Notices shall be directed to the Parties at the addresses shown on below the Parties signatures hereto, provided that a Party may change his address for notice by giving written notice to all other Parties in accordance with this Section 10.

11. All amendments to this Contract shall be in writing and signed by all of the Parties. This Contract may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same instrument.

12. If any dispute between the Parties results in litigation, the prevailing Party in such dispute shall be entitled to recover from the other Party all reasonable fees, costs and expenses of enforcing any right of the prevailing Party, including without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses, all of which shall be deemed to have accrued upon the commencement of such action and shall be paid whether or not such action is prosecuted to judgment. Any judgment or order entered in such action shall contain a specific provision providing for the recovery of attorneys fees and costs incurred in enforcing such judgment and an award of prejudgment interest from the date of the breach at the maximum rate of interest permitted by law. For purposes of this Section: attorney fees shall include, without limitation, fees incurred in the following: (1) post judgment motions; (2) contempt proceedings; (3) garnishment, levy, and debtor and third Party examinations; (4) discovery; and (5) bankruptcy litigation, and prevailing Party shall mean the Party who is determined in the proceeding to have prevailed or who prevails by dismissal, default or otherwise.

13. The remedies under this Contract are cumulative and shall not exclude any other remedies to which any person may be lawfully entitled.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Parties execute this Contract as of the date written above.

There is no pending or, to Connelly's knowledge, threatened claim or litigation contesting the validity, ownership or right of Connelly to own or exercise any rights related to any of the Founder Assets, nor has Connelly received any notice asserting that any Founder Assets, or the proposed use, assignment, sale, license or disposition thereof, as applicable, conflicts or will conflict with the rights of any other party.

The Company agrees to indemnify and hold harmless Founders from any liability for any commission or compensation in the nature of a finders' fee (and the costs and expenses of defending against such liability or asserted liability) for which the Company or any of its officers, employees or representatives is responsible.

8.7 Expenses.

If any action at law or in equity is necessary to enforce or interpret the terms of this Agreement, the Restated Certificate or the Related Agreements, the prevailing party shall be entitled to reasonable attorney's fees, costs and necessary disbursements in addition to any other relief to which such party may be entitled.

8.8 Amendments and Waivers.

Any term of this Agreement may be amended and the observance of any term of this Agreement may be waived (either generally or in a particular instance and either retroactively or prospectively), only with the written consent of the Company and each of the Founders holding the Common Stock that is issuable or issued pursuant to this Agreement. 8.9 Severability.

If one or more provisions of this Agreement are held to be unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be excluded from this Agreement and the balance of the Agreement shall be interpreted as if such provision were so excluded and shall be enforceable in accordance with its terms.

8.10 Aggregation of Stock.

All shares of the Common Stock held or acquired by affiliated entities or persons shall be aggregated together for the purpose of determining the availability of any rights under this Agreement.

8.11 Entire Agreement.

The applicable rules of professional conduct require that FGC inform the parties hereunder of this representation and obtain their consent. FGC has served as outside general counsel to the Company and has negotiated the terms of the Contribution solely on behalf of the Company. The Company and each Founder hereby (a) acknowledge that they have had an opportunity to ask for and have obtained information relevant to such representation, including disclosure of the reasonably foreseeable adverse consequences of such representation; (b) acknowledge that with respect to the Contribution, FGC has represented solely the Company, and not any Founder or any director, officer, member, manager or employee of the Company or any Founder; and (c) gives its informed consent to FGC's representation of the Company in the Contribution.

8.13 Electronic Signature and Delivery.

Electronic signature and delivery of this Agreement (whether by fax, email or otherwise) shall be equally effective as delivery of a manually executed tangible original of the same.

Vinnie D! Hey should we have a "Tag Line" under Dr. Connelly.com? Like "Bringing the future of nutritional sting operations to a douche bag near you" or a reasonable facsimile? LMAO! Something though don't you think? Also, need the text for "About Dr. C" He said you and he wrote something? Let me know...

Here are the changes:

Make the tank top on the curling shot say Progenex (He wants a copy of the original when you're done)

Make the attached Dr.Scott Connelly.com logo all on one line and use that (One of his bakery barn guys did it)

Under that "Myoblast" image – Progenex Dairy Bioactives.

Delete "The" in "The Meatbolic Advantage" so it just says "Metabolic Advantage"

Increase all type 1pt

Can you make the links rollovers so that when you rollover they pop out larger and say where they are going? For instance

Recovery bag - "Learn about Progenex Recovery" & link it back to appropriate Progenex page

More Muscle bag - "Learn about Progenex More Muscle" & link it back to appropriate Progenex page

Here's the info on Adam's uncle who I saw from time to time working in the office. My friend said he was just laid off from Xbanker but was waiting to be hired by Shared Success or Progenex. It's a long shot but maybe his name is on some of Adam's sham corporations...

√* BY MAIL

I am readily familiar with the firm's practice of collection and processing correspondence for mailing. Under that practice, it would be deposited with U.S. Postal Service on that same day with postage thereon fully prepared at Pasadena, California, in the ordinary course of business. I am aware that on motion of the party served, service is presumed invalid if postal cancellation date or postage meter date is more than one day after date of deposit for mailing in affidavit.

BY PERSONAL SERVICE I caused such envelope to be delivered by hand to the offices of the addressee listed above.

BY FACSIMILE TRANSMISSION: From Fax No. to Fax No. indicated above. The facsimile machine I used complied with Rule 2003(3), and no error was reported by the machine. Pursuant to Rule 2005(i), I caused the machine to print a record of the transmission, a copy of which is attached to this declaration.

X BY EMAIL: I caused the document to be transmitted by electronic mail to the email addresses set forth for each of the recipients and known to me to be the current and correct electronic mail addresses and used by those individuals. I did not receive any communication that the emails were not transmitted, nor were they returned as undeliverable.

_X__ I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the above is true and correct.
